

What Other Communities Are Spending

and

How Does Bow Compare?

Brought to You by The Concerned Taxpayers of Bow
www.bowtaxpayers.org

Town of Bow – Proposal

Population*: 7,519

Year: 2014 (To Be Voted on At Town Meeting)

Facility: 25,000 sq. ft. complex with combined fire and police stations

Cost: $6.8 million plus additional $200,000 for geothermal system

**All populations obtained from 2010 Census*

Town of Brentwood

Population: 4,486

Year: 2010

Facility: 14,000 sq. ft. fire station

Cost: Under $2 million

Town of Hampton

Population: 11,931 (Hampton and Hampton Beach combined)

Year: 2013 (both facilities built)

Facility 1: 11,000 sq. ft. fire station on beach

Cost: $3.1 million

Facility 2: 9,000 sq. ft. expansion/ renovation of fire station on Winnacunnet Rd

Cost: $2.6 million

Town of Gilmanton

Population: 3,777

Year: 2010

Facility: 6,720 sq. ft. complex with combined fire and police stations

Cost: $875,000

Town of Pelham

Population: 12,897

Year: 2012

Facility: 18,000 sq. ft. fire station

Cost: $3.9 million

Town of New Hampton

Population: 2,165

Year: 2011

Facility: 16,000 sq. ft. complex with combined fire and police station

Cost: $2.23 million

Town of Deerfield

Population: 3,909

Year: 2013 (Rejected at Town Meeting)

Facility: Safety complex with combined fire and police station

Cost: $2.4 million

Town of North Hampton

Population: 4,301

Year: 2014 (To Be Voted on At Town Meeting)

Facility: Complex with a new library, police station, fire station and renovations to administrative offices

Cost: $6 million (approx.)

Town of Milton

Population: 4,598

Year: 2014 (To Be Voted on At Town Meeting – Rejected in 2013)

Facility: 11,800 sq. ft. fire station

Cost: $2.864 million

